MCHP provides the finest real-world medical training to future specialists through a progressive learning environment, which includes hands-on clinical instruction, access to professional and medical resources, small class sizes, and a highly supportive faculty and staff.

Saturday
October 24, 2015
9 am – 12 pm
70 Middle Street, Lewiston, Maine

Discover MCHP:
- Student-led tours of our Lewiston campus
- Demonstrations of patient simulation equipment
- Conversations with faculty and staff

Learn More:
- Majors in nursing, radiologic technology, nuclear medicine technology, C.N.A and CT
- Financial aid and student support
- Admissions process
- Credit transfer

Employers see that MCHP graduates are confident and know how to be professional. This gives our college an excellent reputation among health care professionals.”

- Brittany, Radiologic Technology, Class of 2016