

MCHP

Maine College of Health Professions

Job Title: Full-Time Clinical Nursing Faculty

The Full-Time Nursing Faculty member develops, implements, and evaluates the nursing program on an ongoing basis. This position requires advising students, curriculum development, program revisions, program evaluations, textbook selection, teaching in the clinical setting, evaluation of student achievement, and other matters as assigned in accordance with the mission, core values, and purpose of the college.

Minimum Qualifications:

1. Bachelor's degree in nursing required
2. Previous teaching experience preferred; two years of full-time clinical experience in the area/areas of teaching responsibility; knowledge and skills related to teaching adults, teaching methodology, curriculum development, evaluation, or willingness to plan for acquisition of these skills;
3. Current/unencumbered Maine RN license

Skills and Attributes

The Full-Time Clinical Nursing Faculty must possess the following skills and attributes: management and leadership skills; organizational and research skills; strong interpersonal and communication skills; strong clinical and professional skills.

Responsibilities:

The Full-Time Clinical Nursing Faculty performs the following essential functions:

1. Teaching Load
 - A. Full-time clinical nursing faculty must teach 15-credits per 15-week semester or 30-credits/academic year. Or, 30 credits during the academic year and 12 credits over the summer for a total of 36-credits year-round.
 - B. One clinical faculty member teaches a maximum of eight students in the patient care areas.
 - C. 1 credit clinical=2 student contact hours/week
 - D. Clinical faculty post and keep a minimum of six office hours per week that accommodate the students' schedules.

2. Administration

- A. Participates in interviewing and makes recommendations for hiring adjunct faculty.
- B. Arranges for coverage of clinical courses during own absences and emergency leave.
- C. Promotes rapport within the department, campus, and community.
- D. Functions as a Lead Faculty for clinical courses
- E. Attends and participates in faculty meetings.
- F. Attends and participates in Faculty Senate meetings.
- G. Participates on at least two college committees.
- H. Participates in accreditation reviews and reports.